Rules and Guidelines

All entries must include a signed entry form using the attached form (or copy) agreeing to take part in this competition, accept contest rules and guidelines as here outlined, and abide by contest judging decisions.

Entries must incorporate creative and original artwork and ideas. Depictions of video game, and movie/television/cartoon characters; celebrities; movie themes; and past poster designs do not constitute creativity and originality.

Entrants must refrain from writing their name or other identifying information on the front of their entries. Entries can be designed using illustration, photography, typography, mixed media or any graphic design technique you choose.

Avoid using any copyrighted or trademarked materials or objects as elements of your design. Computer clip art, pictures from magazines and other print media, or any other copyrighted brand or product images will not be accepted.

Selected entries is subject to change or modification as deemed appropriate by Transparency Maldives for the purposes of poster and other renditions. By submitting an entry, entrants give permission for their work to be displayed at various Transparency Maldives events, in publications and promotional material, and in electronic format on the internet.

Entrants may submit more than one entry, but are eligible for only one prize.

Failure to comply with the guidelines could result in a disqualification of the entry.

Selected posters will be displayed at an exhibition to commemorate the International Anti-Corruption Day 2014.
