Transparency Maldives is seeking an individual or a firm based in the Maldives to develop advocacy material.

I. Organisational context

Transparency Maldives (TM) is a non-partisan organization that endeavours to be a constructive force in society by promoting collaboration and discussion on corruption, transparency, and accountability. Our organization seeks to engage with stakeholders from all sectors (government, business, political and civil society, among others) to raise awareness of corruption’s detrimental effects on development and society, improve transparency and accountability in governance, and eliminate corruption from the daily lives of people.

Transparency Maldives received formal government registration in 2007, and is the National Contact of Transparency International (TI) in the Maldives.

II. Assignment details

Transparency Maldives recently conducted a mixed methods research survey to discern public attitudes and perceptions towards parliamentary floor crossing in the Maldives. Following the completion of the survey report, Transparency Maldives now seeks an individual/company based in the Maldives to develop infographics of the survey findings.

III. Duration of assignment

- Completion of the work within 07 days of signing the contract.

IV. Consultant profile

- Minimum of 3 years work experience in the field of campaign, preferably advocacy campaign with experience in social issues related awareness.
- Strong knowledge in traditional and new media communications and technologies.

V. Submission

Closing date: Before 3pm, 16 April 2015.
Application: Submit a letter of interest with CV, quotation, and samples of previous work via email to fazla.abdulsamad@transparencymaldives.org addressed to Fazla Abdul-Samad (Project Coordinator, Parliament Accountability Project).
Queries: Please email Fazla Abdul-Samad if further information is required.
