1. Organizational Background

Transparency Maldives (TM) is a non-partisan organization that endeavors to be a constructive force in society by promoting collaboration and discussion on corruption, transparency, and accountability. TM seeks to engage with stakeholders from all sectors (government, business, political and civil society, among others) to raise awareness of corruption’s detrimental effects on development and society, improve transparency and accountability in governance, and eliminate corruption from the daily lives of people.

Transparency Maldives received formal government registration in 2007 and is the National Chapter of Transparency International (TI) in the Maldives.

2. Eligibility: Organizations / Firms / Team

3. Project Duration: 6 months

4. Scope of Work and Guidelines

4.1 Background

The purpose of this Request for Proposal (RFP) is seeking experienced consultants to submit proposal for the development of a Legislative Impact Assessment of the current Environmental legal framework in the Maldives. The assessment aims to Assess the Environmental legal framework, regulations and policies in the Maldives, especially from the intersection of social inclusion, corruption and climate governance

4.2 Objectives, Scope, and Description of Activities

The Gender and Environmental Expert will conduct a Legislative Impact Assessment of the current national framework governing environment protection and preservation in the Maldives; The Environment Protection and Preservation Act (Act no. 4/93) and regulations formed under the act with a special focus on EIA regulation (2012/R-27). This analysis aims to provide a comprehensive understanding of the existing legal framework, their strengths, weaknesses, and their impact and effectiveness on addressing issues related to the intersection of environmental protection, climate, gender, and corruption. Through this process, we aim to identify existing gaps and potential opportunities to advocate for inclusive, transparent and responsive environmental law in the Maldives.

5. Deliverables and Timeline

The consultant is expected to:

- Conduct a legislative and technical review the Environment Protection and Preservation Act (Act no. 4/93) and regulations formed under the act with a special focus on EIA regulation (2012/R-27) through a detailed review of existing literature and primary research through KIIs, FDGs and surveys
- Assessing the extent to which these policies integrate gender-responsive and corruption-mitigating measures.
- Analyzing the impact of existing environmental policies on gender equality, social inclusion, and anti-corruption efforts.
- Conducting consultations with relevant stakeholders, including government agencies, civil society organizations, and vulnerable communities, to gather insights and perspectives.
- Identifying legislative gaps and recommending amendments or policy reforms to strengthen gender inclusivity and anti-corruption measures within environmental policies.
- Developing a comprehensive report outlining findings, strengths, weaknesses, and recommendations for the EPP Act including Policy recommendations on reforming and strengthening the existing system of environmental governance.

Responsibilities of Consultant:

- Develop an inception report which should include detailed workplan, stakeholder mapping, and methodology
- Identify key stakeholders and provide a list of stakeholders to be interviewed.

- Finalize research methodology and develop research tools (including questionnaires for KIIs, FDGs and surveys) contextualized to the Maldivian context. The questionnaires should be preapproved by TM prior to initiating the research to contextualize and finalize them.
- Conduct field research, including organizing stakeholder meetings and primary data collection through interviews and/or focus group discussions. Notes of interviews/ and focus group discussions along with raw data must be shared with TM.
- Produce a preliminary report, the assessment findings, and key recommendations to TM.
- Organize and conduct a stakeholder validation meeting, to present the preliminary report. Logistics and coordination of the meeting can be facilitated by TM.
- Produce final report incorporating feedback from the validation meeting.
- Translate the final report to Dhivehi language.
- Support TM to develop a draft advocacy plan for the report.

Following the acceptance of the inception report, consultants must conduct the field and desk research and submit a first draft of the report highlighting key findings and recommendations. Once TM reviews and accepts the first draft report, a validation workshop be held with relevant stakeholders to establish content validity, and a final report must be submitted within 5 months of signing of the agreement. Service providers must provide field/interview notes, transcripts, and audio recordings TM. A summary and timeline of the deliverables are provided below.

ANNEX 2: CONFLICT OF INTEREST STATEMENT

Transparency Maldives (TM) is committed to integrity in procurement, and only selects suppliers based on objective business criteria such as price and technical capacity. TM does not tolerate fraud, collusion among bidders, falsified proposals/bids, bribery, or kickbacks. Any entity or individual violating these standards will be disqualified from this procurement and barred from future procurement opportunities.

TM employees and agents are strictly prohibited from asking for or accepting any money, fee, commission, credit, gift, gratuity, object of value or compensation from current or potential vendors or suppliers in exchange for or as a reward for business.

By signing this certification, the bidder agrees to:

- Disclose as part of the proposal submission any close, familial, or financial relationships with TM staff and members. For example, the bidder must disclose if a bidder's mother conducts volunteer trainings for TM.
- Disclose as part of the proposal submission any family or financial relationship with other bidders submitting proposals. For example, if the bidder's father owns a company that is submitting another proposal, the bidder must state this.
- Certify that the prices in the bid/proposal/application/quote have been arrived at independently, without any consultation, communication, or agreement with any other bidder or competitor for the purpose of restricting competition.
- Certify that all information in the proposal and all supporting documentation are authentic and accurate.
- Certify understanding and agreement to TM's prohibitions against fraud and bribery.

Please contact procurement@transparency.mv for any questions or concerns regarding the above information or to report any potential violations.
